Shabbat Hagadol is the Shabbat preceding Pesach. It takes its name from the end of the special Haftarah from the Prophet Malakhi. He says "I will send the prophet Eliyahu to you before the coming of the great, fearful day of the Lord." The role of Eliyahu is to introduce the future messianic era. At the Pesach Seder we welcome Eliyahu (with his mask) as an anticipation of the Messianic age where all humans will be free. There is no special Torah Reading for Shabbat Hagadol, just a special Haftarah.

In these unprecedented times, the way we gather has needed to be different. We are still holding services and finding ways to come together as a community. Please stay connected with us at tberochester.org, where you can find up-to-date information and content

RABBI'S CORNER

Pesach is a Jewish holiday that confuses our understanding of religion. Pesach rituals don't require the presence of a synagogue or clergy; the Seder can be conducted by anyone. In addition, we eat more than we pray. We are even commanded to rejoice in our festival. A Seder that doesn't have some fun doesn't fulfill the Torah's commandment. This commandment opens the door to our own personal contributions to the Seder. So the funny songs, the exchanging of glances and the occasional memory of past Sederarim should be included in our celebration.

Part of not being slaves in Egypt anymore has to do with the way we celebrate. We recline during the Seder and should give time to laugh at the Seder. Make it happy and fun, meaningful and memorable. A little spilling of wine and the traditional foods we eat are hardly enough to make our joy flourish. The Seder needs our conversations, our zooms, our human interaction. Remember that you are in charge of the Seder celebration at your table. As a (religious) leader or as a participating guest the joy of our spring festival is now your responsibility.

Hag Kasher v'Sameach!
