

Food Insecurity in Rochester: A Call to Action

GET AN IN-DEPTH LOOK INTO ROCHESTER'S FOOD INSECURITY CRISIS AND HOW YOU CAN MAKE AN IMPACT.

Thursday, April 29 at 7 PM Via Zoom

The issue of food insecurity has plagued low-income residents long before the pandemic.

Did you know?

Monroe County has an estimated 98,830 food insecure individuals.

30% of the population in Monroe County is food insecure.

And, according to Foodlink, Monroe County's food insecurity has risen by 41% this past year due to the pandemic's economic impact.

Mitch Gruber
Chief Strategy Officer
Foodlink

Jennie Schaff
President and CEO
Jewish Family Service

Please join us for an informative dialogue with Mitch Gruber, Chief Strategy Officer at Foodlink and City Council member, and Jennie Schaff, President and CEO of Jewish Family Service. We will discuss the staggering statistics, hear Jennie and Mitch's perspective on the issue, and provide you with tangible ways you can make a difference in our community.

Registration is required CLICK HERE

**Sign language interpretation is available upon request.*

For questions or more information about this program, please contact Alyssa Bourgeois at abourgeois@jewishrochester.org.

For more information about Women's Philanthropy, please contact Gitana Mirochnik at gmirochnik@jewishrochester.org.

