FROM THE DESK OF THE SENIOR RABBI

A Time of Trouble is a Time for Growth.

Adversity can be the path of growth we need. I am writing my article during a time of deep crisis in Israel. I want to think positively. I want to believe that the “fine piece of china” needs to be exposed to searing flame before it emerges shaped, strong and beautiful.

We all suffer losses of various degrees throughout life. We are going through one the most difficult periods of suffering for Israelis. As painful as it is, the Jewish soul is also facing the opportunity to get in touch with the depths of God’s divinity in the universe, which gives hope and courage in return.

Tens of thousands of protestors have taken to the streets across Israel in a rare show of defiance against the prime minister over his controversial plans to overhaul the judiciary. Is it necessary to do it? I believe so. Like most things we face is not about what we need to do but how it should be done.

A known parable comes to mind. This is the parable of the two wood choppers who had taken down a tree that was over one hundred years old. Looking at the growth rings to determine the tree’s age, the younger woodchopper noticed that there were five very narrow rings, concluding that there had been a five-year drought, during which the tree had shown very little growth. However, the other lumber person, wiser perhaps, with a philosophical bent, had a different view point. The dry years actually were the most significant in the tree’s history. Because of the drought, the tree had to force its roots down farther to get the water and the minerals it needed. With a strengthened root system, it was able to grow after and taller when conditions improved.

Israel will survive it’s current crisis. It is precisely at these times of turmoil and division that Israel and us in the diaspora must grow inwardly. If we do, we will be amazed at how we can expand our horizons when the conditions of the State of Israel judiciary system gets resolved. And a new unity among Israel’s citizens is born.

Kohelet, the book of Ecclesiastes which we read during Sukkot says. “It is better to go to a House of Mourning than to a House of Rejoicing, for in the House of Mourning one is able to learn so much more.” We obviously don’t want to experience a house of mourning, but if we need to bury old traditions of systems of government, we then shall learn from that experience how to make Israel a better democracy for minorities and the majority.

It has been proven that what finally makes people succeed in spite of the circumstances is not the drive for power, or sex, rather the power of finding meaning in life. The search for meaning is the profound truth that has kept us alive. In the words of Nietzsche: “If you have a why to live for, you can bear with any how.”

Thousands of years ago we received meaning in our lives with the giving of the Torah and Land of Israel. It has accompanied us throughout our lives. Israel will find its new way to run its three branches of power that respects the will of the people. There and in the diaspora, the Jewish people will continue searching for meaning and it will continue to be a light unto the nations.

Am Israel Chai!!!

YOUTH & FAMILY UPDATE

It is so hard to believe that we are entering summer months already and how quickly this year has flown by. We are finishing up the year strong, and reflecting on all of the amazing opportunities the spring months presented us with.

At the end of March and leading up to Passover, we had our 2nd Annual Great Afikomen Race. This was a geocaching style race around town that helped our students learn about Passover. The clues brought knowledge of Passover, as well as allowed students to run around town interacting with local businesses. Last year, we did a virtual kick-off. This year, we did an in-person Model Seder with the first clue being the end of the Seder. We had a total of nine families complete the race, whereas last year, we had four! We incorporated more local businesses including Balsam Bagels, Trader Joes, and Hadlock's Ace Hardware, and the Brighton Police Department! Students who participated received prizes along the way including candy bars, Starbucks gift cards, bagels, goodies, and so much more! Mazel tov to our first place winners, Emma and Ben Futerman and to our tied second place winners, Sadie, Everett, and Lincoln Pickett and Abigail and Noah Saks! Kol hakavod to our four teachers, Emma, Solomon, Kira, and Jade for creating the clues, assisting us in the Seder, and running around town to put clues up!

On April 30th, we presented our third and fourth grade students with a very meaningful Siddur Ceremony. Our students were spotlighted during Kehilah with their parents attending with them. They were given their Siddurim with messages of lifelong learning blessed on them. It was extremely meaningful to all who were able to attend.

Things have not been quiet on the Keshet and Early Childhood side of things either! Our Keshet students had a very busy Passover as we brought the Model Matzah Bakery to them! Rabbi Hirsh and Rabbi Lagunov came to Keshet and taught our students how to make matzah and the importance of it. Then, a few days later, the students used their own matzah for their model Passover Seder! Each class was able to learn about the holiday and traditions by doing various activities including making their own Haggadahs, "reading from them" and making their own Haroset.

We are looking forward to several events coming up. Camp Keshet is almost completely full, and we are excited for new themes, new activities, and new guests for Watermelon Wednesday. One new guest for Watermelon Wednesday is Grace and Grimms puppetry who will be doing a special show about motion in the ocean! We will bring back a lot of favorites including Butterfly Kids Yoga, Soccer Shots, and Moreh Josh from Tikya Music. We are also starting to fill up for Keshet next year, so please see me if you are interested. Stay tuned for a lot of pictures of our summer adventures!

BE WISE registration for the fall minimester will be out soon. We will be having some new opportunities for teens and post-B'nai Mitzvah students. We are looking forward to a madrichim training that will be combined with Temple Sinal and Temple B'rith Kodesh. Stay tuned for more information!

Please do not hesitate to ask for more information on any of our Youth and Family programming! I look forward to working with your family!

L'Shalom,

Mandi Warner

MEN'S CLUB

Men's Club of Temple Beth El Involving Jewish Men in Jewish Life

A Men's Club Minute from Club President Howard Ressel

It's traveling season again! Warm weather and summer vacations mean many of us will visit friends and family across the country and around the world. Here's a suggestion for an important, worthwhile addition to your travel activities. Whether you attend services regularly or just occasionally, find a conservative synagogue (or any synagogue for that matter) where you're visiting. Go to one of their services and check them out. Stay for their Kiddush and see how friendly and welcoming they are. Compare what they do with Beth El. What's similar; what's different? Then share this valuable information with us, that is, with the Men's Club and the entire TBE community.

I recently went to Temple Torat Emet in Boynton Beach, Fl. After the service, I ended up meeting a Florida Regional board member for FJMC. I learned about the issues their clubs deal with and how their Jewish communities compare with ours. As we plan for the future of TBE, this kind of information can be extremely helpful.

Speaking of FJMC, the bi-annual convention is quickly approaching. It's set for Philadelphia, June 29-July 2, and promises to be an exciting, fun and informative weekend. Consider attending all or part of it. You'll find all the facts you need at the website: <https://www.fjmc.org/biennial-convention>. I plan on being there; it'll be my first such convention and I'll report back in the next KOL.

Thanks to everyone who participated in Men's Club Shabbat last March, especially our brethren from Temple Beth Am and Temple Beth David and Rabbi Silbert for combining Temple Beth David's services with ours and participating on the Bimah with Rabbi Bitran. I'm grateful for those with the skills and willingness to lead major portions of the service. I don't have room to list everyone, but all the names were in the program and we can get you a copy if you want one. The service plus our program on Sunday created an amazing weekend.

Have a great summer and remember to contact me with anything Men's Club: questions, ideas or complaints at Mensclub@tberochester.org

– The Environment – Sustainability. Here are some examples of how we are trying to live our values. To learn more, email gailfink49@gmail.com.

Just Judaica, our Temple gift shop, is the largest retail Judaica gift shop in western and central New York. Many items are created by artists and craftspersons for us, and not available on the internet. We also sell high quality personalized kippot and ketubahs at below-internet prices. Plan your own personal shopping experience - call Lynda (585-314-8288) or Iris (585-739-2428) to set up yours. Normal shopping hours are Tuesdays 2-4.

The P.A.D. Project involves collecting feminine hygiene products, and distributing them to needy teens and women in the Rochester area.
We hold "PAD Parties" twice a year, to pack the products for monthly use. A collection barrel is located outside the Chapel, so please drop off products whenever you can. We also invite you to send donations to TBE Sisterhood, and we will purchase products for you.

Shiva Packages contain a collection of items that we hope will be of help to the grieving family as they "sit shiva". We deliver a Shiva Package to Temple Beth El members who are sitting shiva in the Rochester area.

Food Collection and Clothing Collection boxes are always available, located outside the Chapel. Food is delivered to the Brighton Food Cupboard and the Irondequoit Community Cupboard. Clothing goes to Brighton Your Wardrobe.

We support the Torah Fund campaign, which provides scholarships and programs in the worldwide Conservative/Masorti institutes of higher Jewish learning. Through this dedicated philanthropy, we help insure that Rabbis and other professional clergy continue to provide services to our synagogues. Annually, a pin (pictured in photo) is given to thank those who generously give at the donor level.

We will plant a tree on the Temple property, to replace one that had to be removed.

We are developing a flower planting project for our little ones in Keshet.
Watch for more information.

We haven't forgotten our kids and grandkids in high school and college.
We offer a partial scholarship to attend an educational program in Israel.
We also send a "care package" to kids in college, so they know their Temple is thinking of them. (You need to send us his/her address.) These programs are only available to Sisterhood members.

Sisterhood Mission Statement

Our mission is to strengthen and unite the women of Sisterhood and support them to understand and perpetuate Conservative/Masorti Judaism in the home, synagogue and community and reinforce their bonds with Israel and Jews worldwide.
